PART 1. INTERPRETATION

1. Words importing the singular include the plural and vice versa; and words importing a male person include a female person and corporation.
2. The definitions in the Society Act on the date these Bylaws become effective apply to these Bylaws.

PART 2. MEMBERSHIP

1. There shall be five (5) classes of membership:
 - a) Honorary Members: The Board of Directors of the Society may appoint Honorary Members. An Honorary Member shall take no part in the management of the society's affairs unless they are an individual member as described in (b).
 - b) Annual Members: Annual Members shall be those individuals who have attained the age of 18 years as of January 1st of the current year, and Corporations, who have paid the prescribed membership fee.
 - c) Junior Members: Junior Members shall be those individuals who have not reached the age of 18 years as of January 1st of the current year, who have paid the prescribed membership fee.
 - d) Affiliate Members: Affiliate Membership will be open to driving clubs within the Province or neighboring jurisdictions which have paid the prescribed membership fee and whose constitution has been registered with the appropriate registrar of companies or society-governing body.

- e) Supporting Members: Supporting Members shall receive communications only.
2. The only classes of membership that will be eligible to vote or hold office shall be Annual and Affiliate members.
 3. Application for membership shall be in writing and each applicant on becoming a member shall agree to be bound by the Constitution and Bylaws and all rules of the Society, but the Society shall have power to reject any application for membership.
 4. A member in good standing is a member who has complied with the regulations as hereinafter set forth and who is not in arrears of membership or other fees or dues, or suspended.
 5. The financial liability of the member to the Society shall be limited to the amount due from him in respect to his membership fees.
 6. No member shall be entitled to any of the rights and privileges of the Society during any year until his annual fee for that year is paid. On January 31st in each year all members who have paid for the preceding year, but not paid for the current year, shall be removed from the membership roll.
 7. Any member may resign from the Society by notifying the Society in writing, or by allowing his membership to expire, or death. There shall be no refund of membership fees in these cases.
 8. Membership of a Corporation shall expire on receipt of formal notice of resignation or upon dissolution.
 9. No application for membership shall be entitled to vote or hold office until his application has been accepted. No applicant may vote at an Annual General Meeting unless he has been a paid up member for a minimum of 30 days.
 10. The Board of Directors shall have the power to suspend or expel any member who fails to observe any rule or regulation set forth in these bylaws or whose conduct is, in the opinion of the Board, prejudicial to the interests of the Society. A member so suspended or expelled shall have the right to be heard at a General Meeting of the Society. An affirmative vote of three quarters (75%) of the members voting is required for reinstatement.
 11. The Board of Directors shall have the power to suspend any member or deny any other rights or privileges for the failure to pay any dues or obligation owing to the Society. Any suspension or denial of rights or privileges under this rule shall terminate upon payment of the full amount due.
 12. Any member of the Society who has commenced a legal action against the Society may be suspended from membership in the Society by order of the Board of Directors until such time as the action has been settled or decided by the courts.

PART 3. AFFILIATE CLUBS OR ORGANIZATIONS

1. Any club or organization applying for affiliation shall submit, along with their application for affiliation, a copy of their constitution along with a resume of their year's activities, which will be reviewed by the Board of Directors.
2. Affiliate clubs shall be represented by a director appointed by them.
3. Affiliate Clubs shall be entitled to one vote.
4. Only persons who are members of good standing with the Society shall be eligible to become a director for the Affiliated Club or Organization.

5. The society assumes no responsibility for the actions of any Affiliate Club, Association or Society.

PART 4. COMMUNICATION

1. Should approval be given on the membership form, E-mail may be used as the method of contacting a member, otherwise Canada Post Mail or the official publication of the Society shall be deemed sufficient. The web site may be used as a method of distributing information to these members.

PART 5. MEETINGS

1. The annual General Meeting of the Society shall be held once every calendar year at such time and place as the Executive Committee may from time to time designate.
2. In addition to the Annual General Meeting the Board of Directors may, or at the written request of ten percent (10%) of the voting members, call a General Meeting to be called a Special Meeting, for the purpose of considering Special Business at such time and place as the Board of Directors may designate.
3. The Business of the Special Meeting shall be to consider and resolve the Special Business and only the Special Business for which the meeting was called.
